AND ALL! HAS COME FOR YET YEAR . . .

FROSH TRYING TO BE COOL!

"GET OFF MY BACK"!

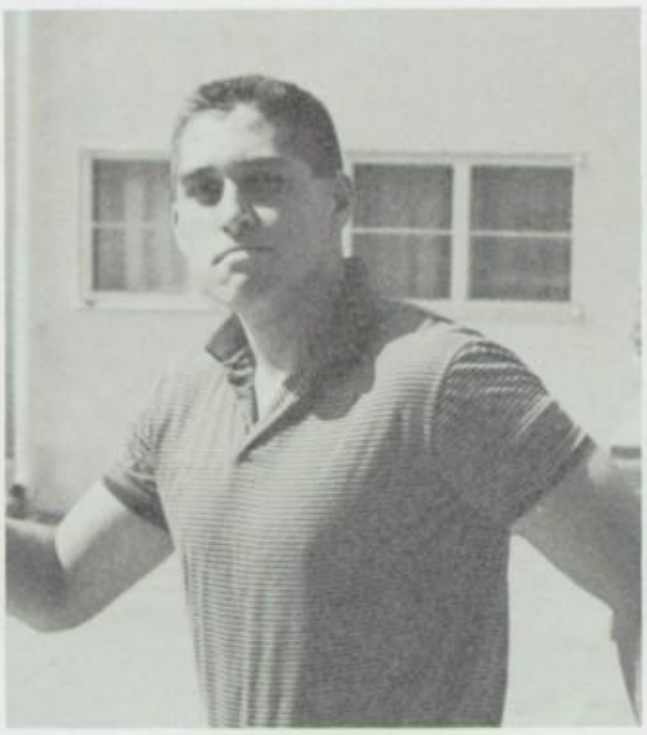
"Armed" John!

"INCOGNITO"

"WHAT"!

"Your purse doesn't match!"

Typical day in freshman classes.



"How's it going?"

"Are you talking to me?"

"Not now its 2:00 o'clock!"

"Where do you get your hair done, darling?"

"You don't have to eat it!"

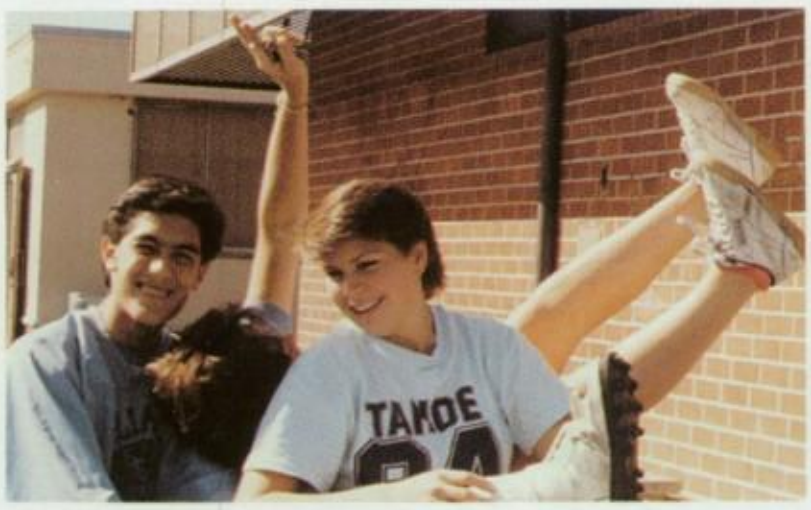
"My turn to go in!"

"Why me???"

ANOTHER YEAR OF . . .

CLOWNING . . .

Elected "Cutest Duo"



Down for the last time!

"Take it easy, guys!"

Makeup does wonders.

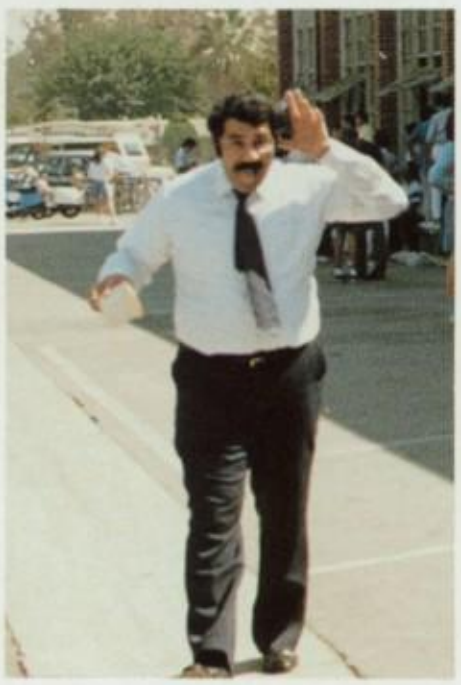
"What can I say . . . They love me!"

A typical day in class.

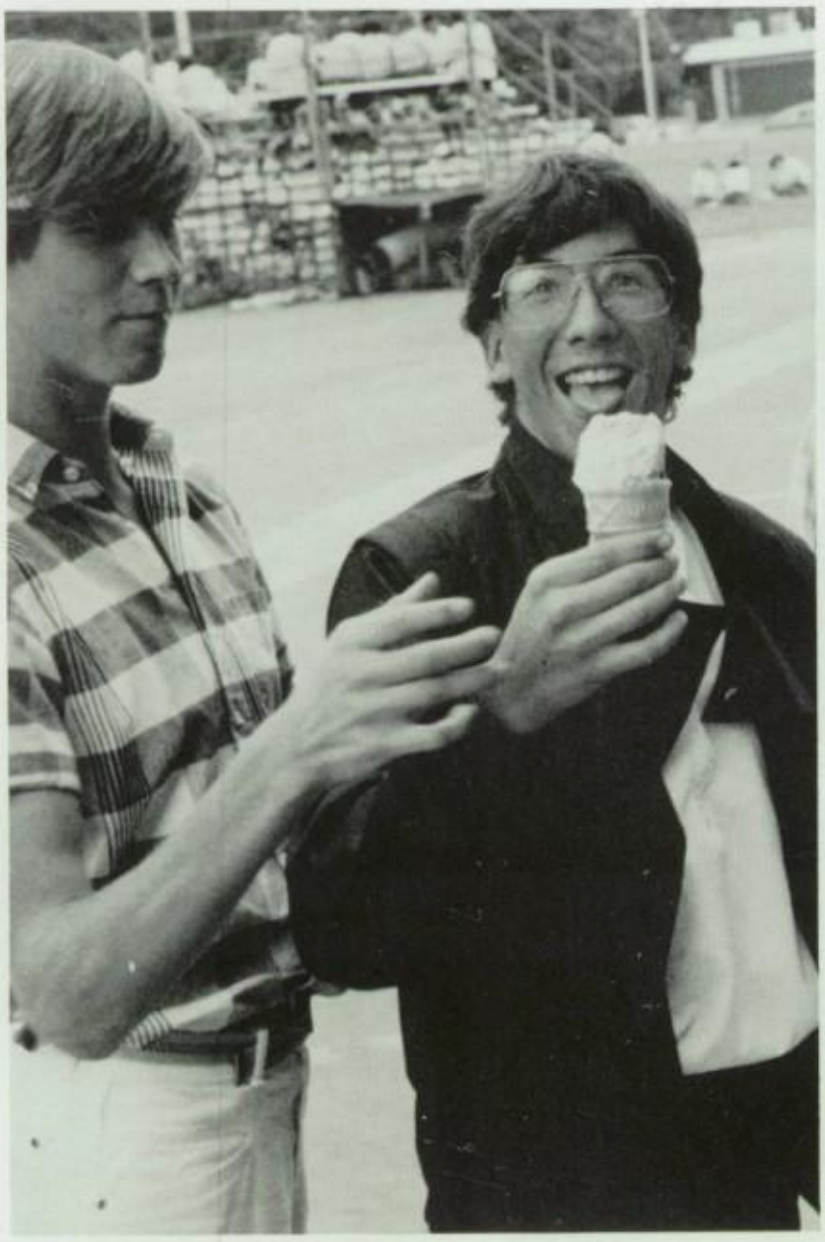
Smile pretty!

"Guys, they have a camera!"

The REAL me uncovered.



"Nany, nany, nany!!!"



"Na! Na! Na-Na-Na! You can't have any!"

"Help me, someone!"

Seniors clowning around

"Catch me, IF you can!"

"Ew! How gross!"

"Oh! My hair!"

Such enthusiasm!

"That's right! We bad!"

"Hi, mom!"

A glorious victory for St. Gen's!!

"Is there school today?"

What are you all looking at?

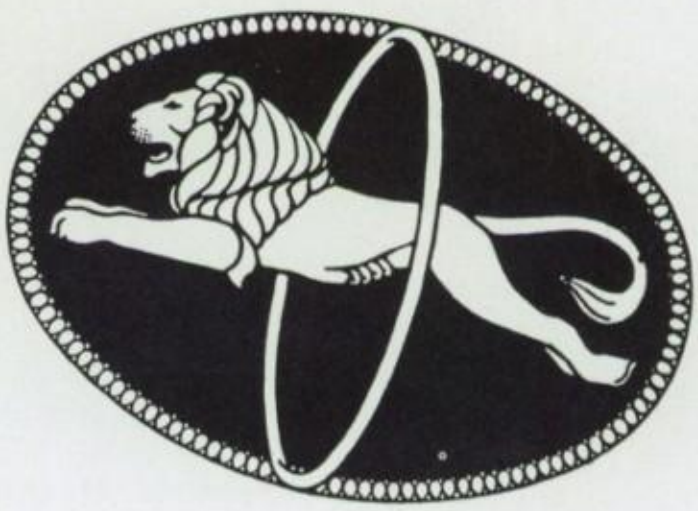
"SPECTACULAR FEATS . . . "

Awesome serve!

"Give me your hand!"

"How'd he do that?"

"May I have this dance?"



Frosh displaying eating habits

"What?"

Watch your step, please!"

"Beam me up, Scottie."

Stephanie, Maggie, Isela, and Deanna . . . S.M.I.D.

Ah, how adorable!

"Talking to me?"

Everyone wants to get in the action!

Don't work too hard!

"I know I'm gorgeous!"

Mr. Miller taking a shower

AND

"HEART-STOPPING

ATTRACTIONS!"

UNREAL!!!

Missing . . . one head . . . maybe two!

SO, SIT BACK, RELAX AND ENJOY THE SHOW!

Junior girls await the show.

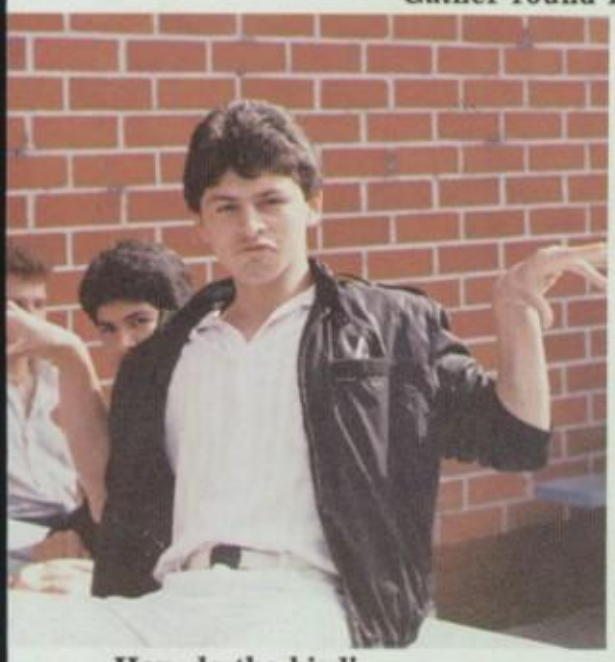
Mike you stud!

"You know what gets me mad..."

Gather round for the picture!



Hey, do the bird!

Don't look now but...

Charming, aren't we?

Do I really have to drink this?

Are you camera happy or something?

I'm camera shy

Hurry up! We'll miss the game!

Hi there!

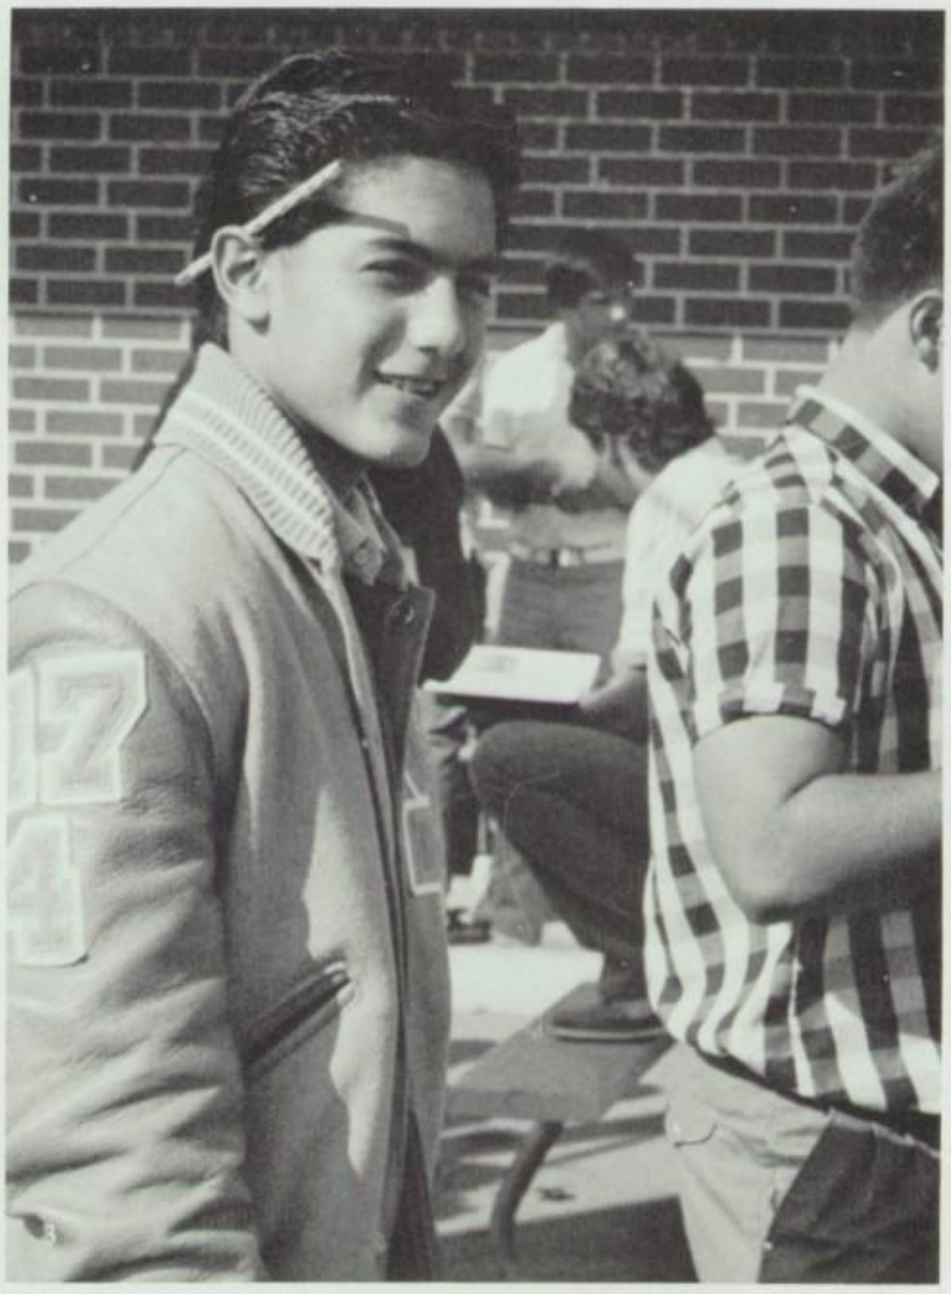
The ultra-brite smile!

"Where is she?"

Under the "Big Top"

"I AM trying to study"

"Oh, My Gosh"



"Joe Cool"

"Want some?"

"W-O-W!"

"You can't be serious!"

Which one doesn't belong?

HHEERREE'SS RUTH!

Are we having fun yet?

"Peek-a-boo!"

"My name is R-O-B-E-R-T-O!"

Who is this masked man?

"No, you can't have a sip!"

"When's the show begin?"

"Too cute."

Smile for the birdie!

Kirsten told two friends and so on.

"Hey, let me in!"

"Memories!"

Under head coach Lindon Crow, the Valiants went on to the second round of playoffs. After getting off to a bad start by losing their first 3 games, the Valiants powerful offensive line, skillfull backs and receivers, combined to lead them to an 8 game winning streak. After clinching the Santa Fe League Championship with an outstanding undefeated record of 5 wins in league play the Valiants advanced to the playoffs. In the first playoff game, the Valiants showing incredible tactics and were victorious over Moorpark H.S. by a score of 24-7. One week later the Valiants season came to a premature end. The Valiants were called to the University of Redlands to compete against Yucaipa H.S. in the second round of playoffs. After four quarters of hard play, the Valiants lost 14-0 and were knocked out of CIF championship contention.

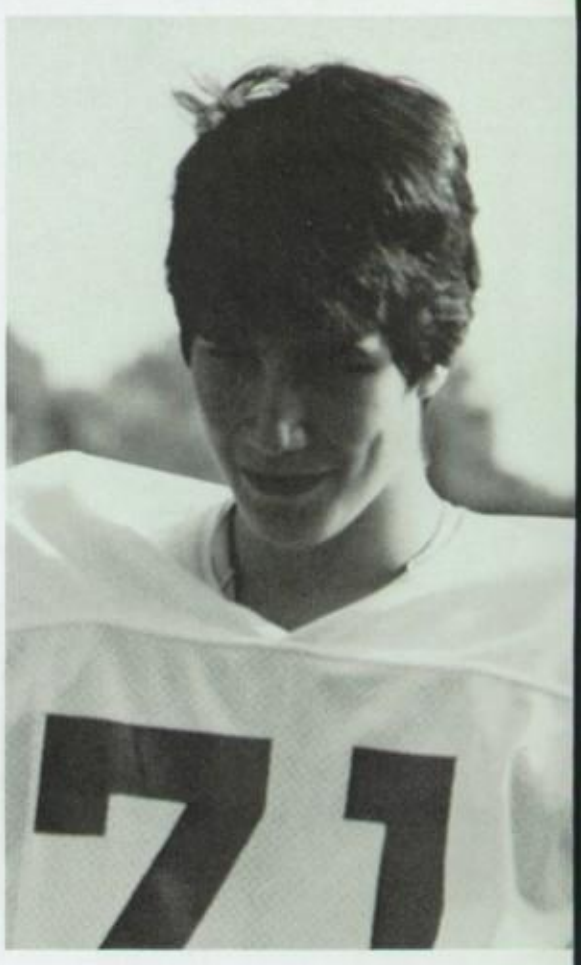
J.V./Frosh Football



This year's frosh-soph football team played its toughest pre-season schedule ever, with games against Alemany, Canyon, Notre Dame, Crespi, and Harvard.

The freshman team was led on defense by quarterback Frank Aguirre, running back, Ruben Aguirre, tight end, Francisco Gil, and wide-receiver-kicker, Alfonso Gutierrez. On defense, Mike Carmichael and Mike Rohrbough anchored the line, and middle linebacker, Adam Barry, helped keep opposing runners from doing any damage. Their record 2-3.

The sophomore team was led by the running of Eric Gunther and Dan Padilla. Tony DeSantis and Marc Panneton played well on the offensive line, and Jose DeLaCruz and Pat Chavez were aggressive defensive performers. The coaches for the soph/frosh team were: Peter Cassidy, head-coach; Leti Tago, defensive-coordinator; Mace Hughes, receivers and defensive backs; Dennis Jordan and Jeff Brecker-offensive and defensive lines; Dan Payne, team manager.

Cross Country

The Cross Country Team of 1984 ran a very strong season this year. They ran against many competitive teams and did very well. Many new and promising trackmen joined the fine talented runners from last year. Most of the victories were led by Team Captain Hector Ruiz, closely followed by Junior John Rodriguez. The team scored very well throughout the season.

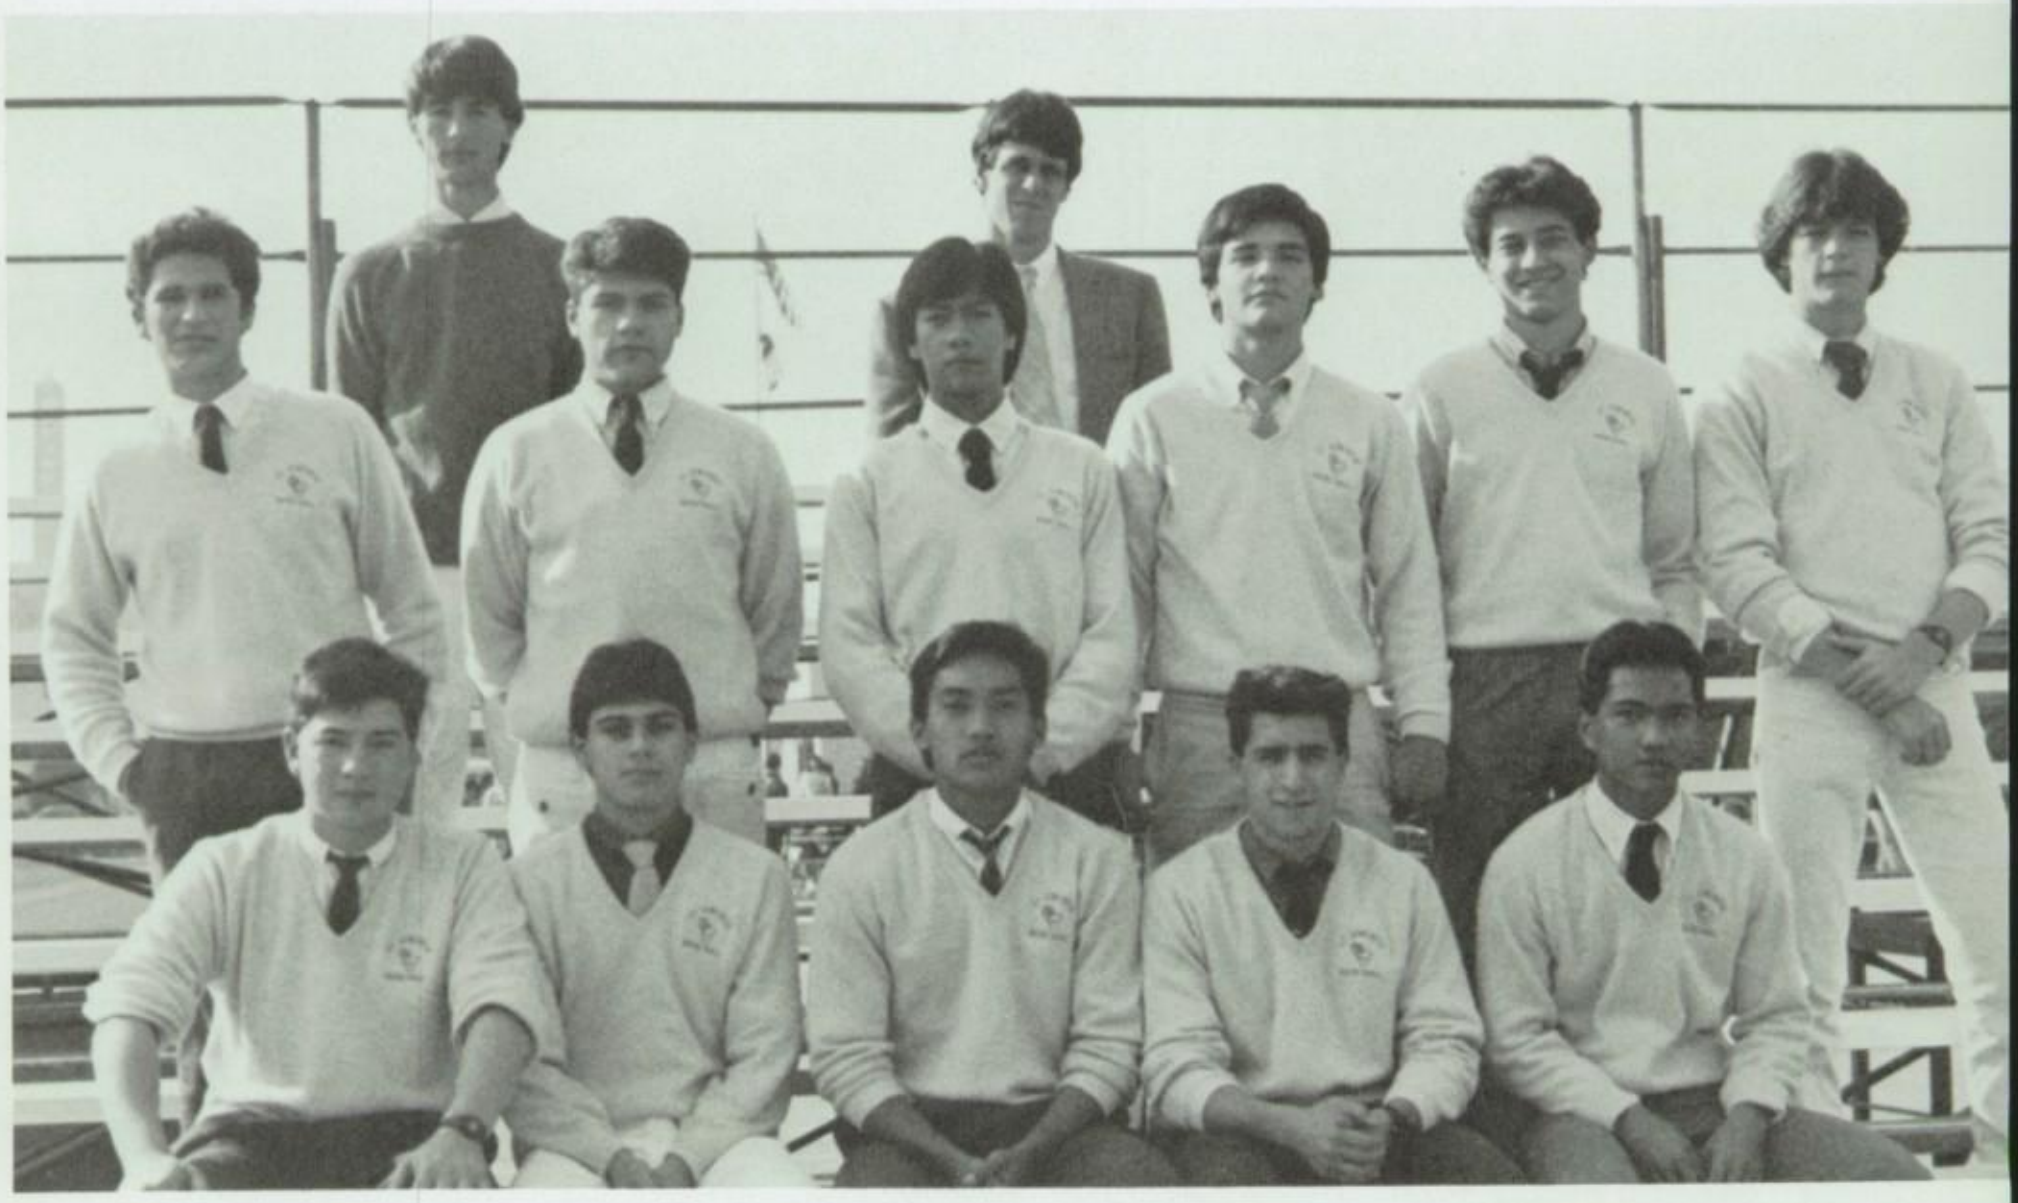
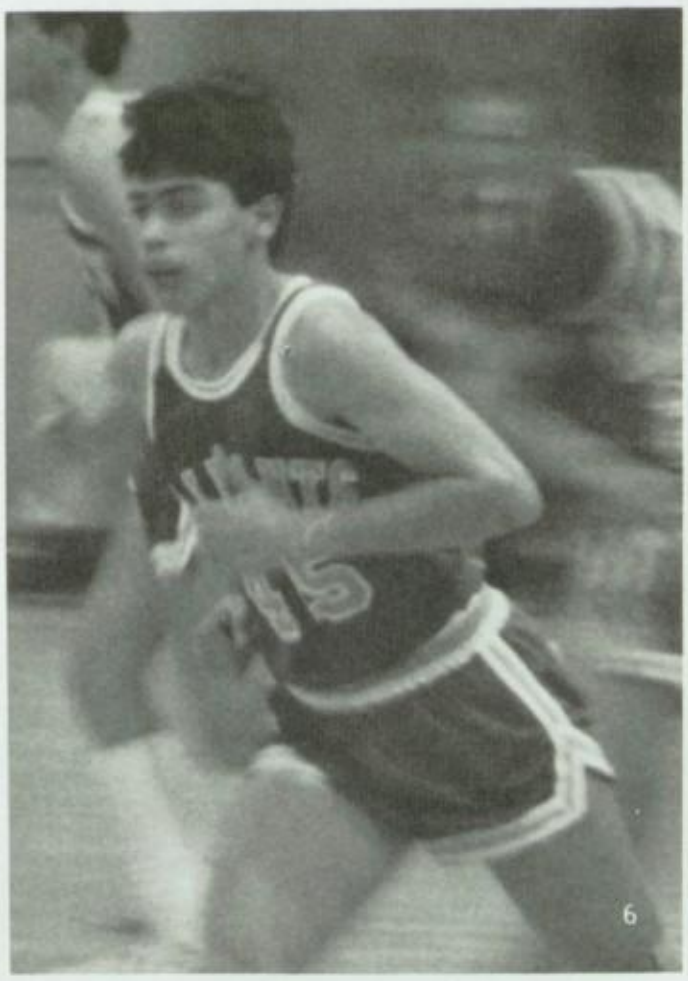
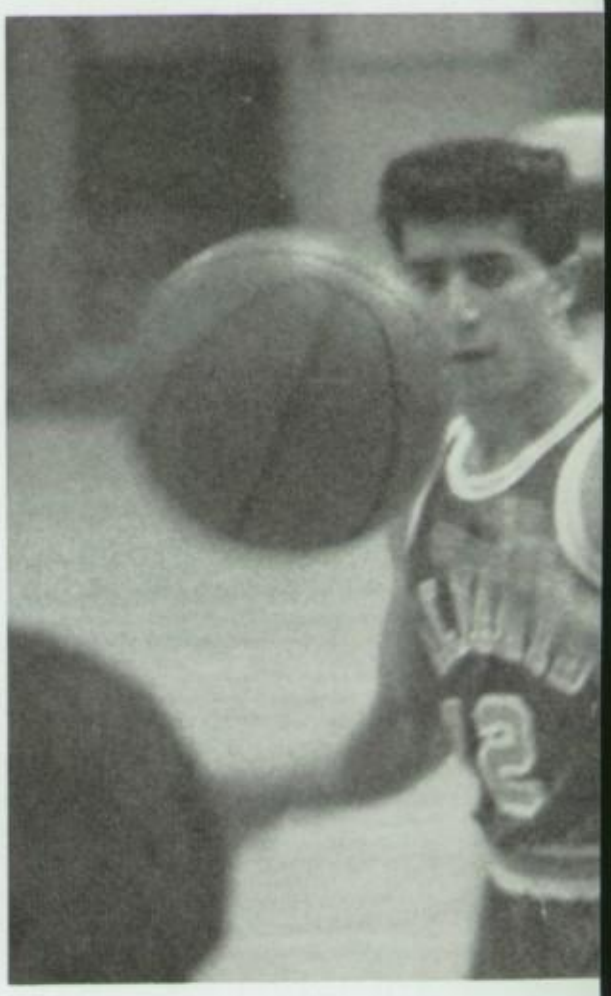
Varsity Basketball







With young talent on the Boys' Varsity Basketball Team, first year Varsity coach, Mike Denison, led the team to a most successful season. Facing teams in the league that are highly ranked in C.I.F. the team played exceptionally well.

The Valiants were led by the strong play of the captains, Mauricio Guardado and Arnold Durazo. Point Guard Steve Escovar also contributed to the team with his aggressive defense.

With the vast majority of the team being juniors, the Valiants can look forward to an even more successful season next year.

Girls' Varsity Basketball

The Girls' Varsity Basketball team this year is made up of four Seniors, two Juniors, and four Sophomores. The team is coached by Miss Bonnie McLaughlin. Paula Lucas, who is the team guard, averages 18 points and 8 rebounds. Cheri Kecxon is very versatile as a guard and as a forward. Ann Baida and Liz Morelos are strong rebounders and aggressive defensive players along with Kelly and Erin who have unlimited talent. Erica and Gail have a great deal of potential and Miss McLaughlin wishes she could have coached them last year. Lisa and Zobeida have ability and are great at keeping the spirit of the team up. Miss McLaughlin says she's thrilled to be coaching such a terrific group of young women.

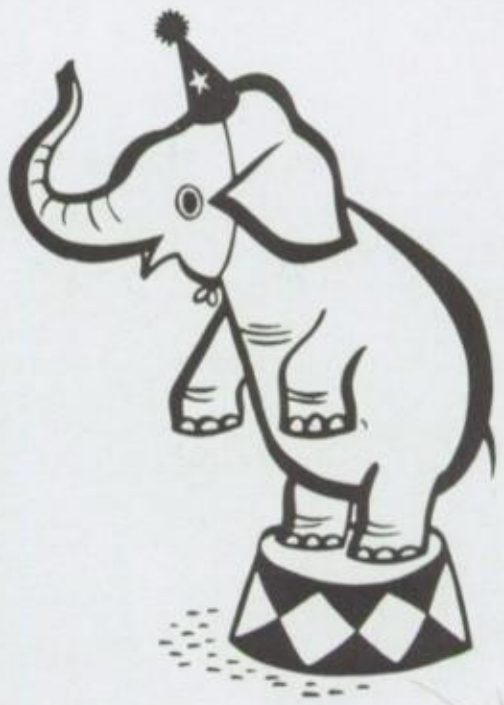
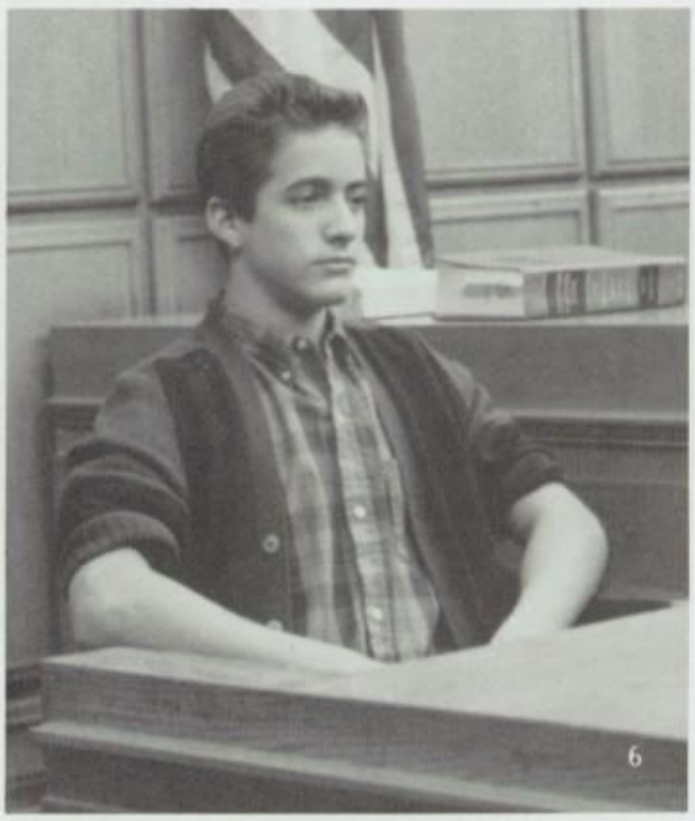
Mock Trial





This year was the third year in competition for the Mock Trial Team. Due to outstanding participation in the Mock Trial, the team was able to have a separate defense and prosecution team whereas last year the same team played both the defense and prosecution. Because of new rules the Mock Trial Team was not able to make it to the semi-finals, but they did beat two out of the three schools they competed against. Not present in the group photo were Steve Emershy and Marianne Calka, who were in the Judges' quarters.

A Moment Of Seriousness Amidst The Clowning

MISSION POSSIBLE?

In the year 1994, I will, after executing my ten-year brilliantly devised scheme, be the Dean of Studies and assistant Principal at St. Genevieve High School. Having overthrown the once omnipotent tyrant, Mr. Rudy Trujillo, I will have taken over his job, his income, and his twenty-five year reign.

Being single, twenty-seven, wealthy, and looking better then ever, I will begin my search for my wife-to-be. I am a man who believes in a close, tight-knit family. I intend to get married, be happy, and breed the superior race.

DEATH, FOR ME?

One day Death came up to my door,
He said my life could be no more.
I laughed and said, "That can't be true!
I've many things I must go through."
I tried to charm him with a smile,
So that he'd let me stay awhile.
I told him that I had been good,
But I don't think he understood.
I pleaded that I was too young,
But bitter words rolled off his tongue,
"It matters not if you aren't old,
If you've been good or you've been bold.
I don't care if you want to stay,
For we must go without delay."
He took me far into the night,
Oh, never had I such a fright.
I thought I would no more have fun,
But now I know life's just begun.

SKID ROW

She lives on the steps of city hall,
And buys her lunch from a coffee stall.
As she sleeps, a rag protects her head
From the grimy pavement of her bed.

At dawn you see her standing there,
Dirty and smelly with knotted hair.
To people she speaks of unknown fame,
Glory and riches that never came.

One night she died by a stolen gun.
Nobody cared; it affected none.

My Brother

I discovered a new friend today
He's unlike anyone I've ever met before;
so full of love and kindness.
His gentle yet firm grip warmed my soul.
His nurturing brought new meaning to my life

He taught me to love.
I showed him I could.
He preached; I listened and understood.
We shared our feelings.

He is overwhelmingly unique,
and His Father is very much the same.

He is an unconditional lover.

I've always dreamed of being like this person
He will show me how.

I fell and He carried me.
I was beaten, and He showed me how to forgive.

But most important, He died for me.
I then realized who He was . . . and believed.

How To Fake a Headache

It's Friday night, 8:30 p.m. The night you have been dreading has finally arrived. You promised to go out with your mom's friend's son (or daughter) and now you don't know what to do. Well, don't panic. It's just time to fake a headache.

First of all, take a shower (as if to get ready for your date). Use extremely hot water. Then, walk out and lie down on your bed. When your mom walks in, get up before she asks what the problem is. Very quietly say, "Hi. I'm O.K. Don't worry about me I'll survive." That is Step I.

Now, by that time your mom will probably think you are in reality faking either a stomachache or a headache, so you must say something like, "Mom, I know you're probably thinking I'm faking this sickness. I'm not, O.K.? I'll go out with Wilbur-What's-his-name if it kills me."

Fine. Finished, Steps I and II. Now we'll go on to Step III. When your mom walks out, grab the phone and call a person that your parents know you absolutely love talking to. Tell him to call you right back. When he/she calls you, let one of your parents answer the phone, and when they tell you who it is, say, "I'm not feeling very well. Tell Tom (or John or Linda or whoever) that I'll try to call him back." That is the end of Step III, so on to Step IV.

Step IV is the final step. Sometimes, it's called the most hilarious. Fall asleep sitting up. Yes, I said sitting up! That way when your mom sees you in such an uncomfortable position, she will have to believe you're not feeling well.

If by following these simple steps you have not accomplished the difficult task of getting your parents to believe you are ill, you may have acquired a real headache. Now it's up to you to get rid of it!

Lisa Garcia, '85

Dear Lord,

Please help me to do what honors you the most. No matter where I go I will never be afraid because I know you will be with me. guarding and guiding me all the way. Lord, please let me let you guide me with your wisdom and counsel through my life and through my most trying times. Help me to always love you and to never let sin or human faults turn me away from you. Let me always be aware that you are here with me and I need only to pray to be with you.

Help me to always be happy with you, God, and to trust you and honor your holy name. May my family and friends live in harmony and peace always. Let the world around us reach peace and be the place you intended it to be so long ago.

I ask this of you, God, with love.

Amen

The Month of Defeat

It's always said that Junior year,
Together with its pressures, would
No doubt produce the utmost fear
And surely kill one if it could.

It all began with ASB.
Elections proved competitive.
With Jeff and Brian versus me.
Just how was I supposed to live?

Then came the LA County Fair . . .
My loss was easy to surmise.
With thirty-five opponents there,
A worthless paper was my prize.

The California Science Fair
Next proved to be my greatest rout;
I did not win, but did I care?
I left the scene without a pout.

My AP Hist'ry class was rough-
Eight months ordeal, two weeks of pain
The test was long, the essay tough.
Fatigued, I nearly went insane!

Craved Senior Class Vice-President
Emerged to be my final hope.
Defeat again seemed heaven-sent.
With how much more can one girl cope?

Unending losses turned to fear
And then my nerves began to fray.
Who said defeat would take a year?
It took but just the month of May!

Don't Say It, Please!

Don't say it, please!
As long as you don't say it, I can act as if I don't know.
I can pretend you don't smile when you say my name.
I can ignore you when you stare at me from across the room,
and avoid you in the halls.
I'll say we're just friends when they ask about you.
Don't be nice to me, either.
It makes me . . . guilty.
If you wait, you'll forget about me. You'll find another,
And I'll never have to hurt you.

Hidden Love

I've known her for so many years,
Yet still I feel those silent fears,
For when I look into her eyes,
I hear so many silent cries.

I've often wondered what they were,
A need for love I'm almost sure.
I'd offer mine, but yet I fear . . .
Rejection always seems so near.

My love for her builds up inside,
The feelings in my heart I hide.
If only she would show some sign,
My love for her would truly shine.

Time for Peace

Enough of hate and war and pain,
Enough of guns and bombs,
It is time to make peace.
We seek the answers to our plight,
Never seeking,
    yet always seeking.
Now is the time,
    the time for peace.
Let us slow down our world!

Give us a chance to change our ways.
Make time for love,
    for peace,
        for people,
Before our greed and prejudice
Forever end our chances
To grow,
  to experience life,
    to look at nature,
      and to love one another.

On Rainy Days

The day she left me there was rain-
A weeping for a heart just slain.
When I look back, my spirits wane,
For on my heart she left a stain.

I try to think we never were,
But then my thoughts turn back to her
And all she said to make me sure
That we could not be more secure.

So now whene'er I see the rain,
Recalled each time is this refrain:
"The hurt I feel is heartfelt pain
When love I seek is sought in vain."

Epitaph

It's too bad May didn't live longer.
She might eventually have become
"a major factor in the world!"

She was basically a good and loving person.
And she did try to better herself.
She believed that it's the soul that counts
so it doesn't matter what one looks like.

She was always interested in the subject
of love,
though she wasn't always loving.
But she tried.
She just needed more practice!

(alias "May")

Dear Mrs. Joan Brady:

This is an extremely hard letter for me to write, but I must write to you.

I received your letter last week, a day before my eighteenth birthday. The letter was a surprise, though not a complete shock because at age thirteen my parents told me of my adoption.

They explained that you were only sixteen and very frightened and you did what was best for me. They also explained that in the adoption agreement you would be able to write me a letter when I turned eighteen. I always hoped for that letter, though I never really thought it would come.

As I read your letter, all the tears and anger that I had stored for five years came to a head. I hated you so much when I was thirteen. I felt as if I didn't belong anywhere, and it was all your fault. I remember all those nights I cried and wished that my real mom was there to hold me. I now realize you did the best thing for me.

I know it must've been very hard for you to give up your own child. There was no need for an apology in your letter. I understand.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rice, my parents, have taken excellent care of me. They've loved me as if I were really their own child. I love them more than words can ever express.

I also love you, though you're a stranger to me. I have thought it over and I've decided that it would be the best for everyone if we not meet each other. I know you said you wanted to meet me very much, but it's just not possible right now.

You stated in your letter you are an engineer. I have hopes that some day I will also become an engineer. We may even someday work on a project together, but until that day we have to live our lives separately. Please do not write back. I really need time to think about everything in my life. In answer to your question, "Yes, I do have blue eyes."

Love,
Marilyn

Precious Dreams

I hated myself
for loving you;
I hated myself
for wanting you;
I hated myself
for always thinking about you
Your love stole my heart and my precious dreams
but what hurts is...
I'll never forget them.

Sergio Arevalo, '87

My dearest Vanessa,

I have so much I want to say to you, but you know how I get when it comes to expressing myself! Of course, you know how hard it is for me, you know everything about me. You've been my very best friend for twelve years now. We've shared everything from secrets to boyfriends. (Remember the time we both went out with Tommy-on the same night?!!)

You're such a special person, Vanessa, and you mean so much to me! I love the way you can make people feel instantly at ease with you and the way you always care so deeply for the underdogs of the world.

I really admire how you take such a strong stand on issues. For instance, when we had to do that report on drunk driving and you became so upset when you learned innocent people had to pay for others' selfishness.

You've always been such a wonderful friend to me, even though I don't always treat you the way you treat me. I know I never could have made it through all these years without you. I can't make it through all the years to come without you. I miss you, Vanessa. I'm so sorry. I know how much it upsets you. I drank. I drove. You paid.

Broken Hearts

Broken window,
Broken door,
Broken glass
On broken floor.

Broken heart
Thrust out the door.
Broken love
That is no more.

Broken house,
Broken home,
Broken heart,
You're not alone.

Wandering down
Lonely street,
The world's no longer
At your feet.

The love your life
Had found is gone.
In time you'll find
You're on your own.

Daniel Payne, '86

The Thawing . . .

Remember that night we spent
Talking on the curb by the park?
You said you needed someone to talk to,
And since you always told me everything,
I was your only logical choice.
You felt "real down."
You were in tears before you even spoke a word.
I didn't say anything.
I just wrapped my arms around you,
And held you 'til both our faces
Were streaked with tears.
Then you talked.
I was in tears before I even spoke a word.
You didn't say anything.
You just wrapped your arms around me,
And held me.
I'll never forget what you did for me that night.
You helped me open that steel door within me.
You helped me begin to feel again.

Youth

We've had our fun,
Playing our little games,

Things that will never be forgotten,
Even when we're all grown up.

Our time has come,
To say "Good-bye".

Even if we don't see one another again,
At least we had a chance to be friends.

FACULTY

Administration And Leadership

Saint Genevieve High School has been in existence for 26 years. During that time it has earned a well-deserved reputation for being a school which merits high respect. Seldom do we recognize the great leaders that keep this institution on its feet. With great respect, we dedicate these pages in honor of these beloved people, Timothy Cardinal Manning, President of the Archdiocesan Board of Education; Monsignor Jeremiah Murphy, Superintendent of Secondary Education; Monsignor John Cosgrove, Parish Pastor; our Principal, Fr. Frank Doherty; Assistant Principal, Dean of Girls, Sr. Margaret Maureen, SP; Assistant Principal, Dean of Boys, Mr. Kevin Feeney; and Dean of Studies, Mr. Rudy Trujillo.

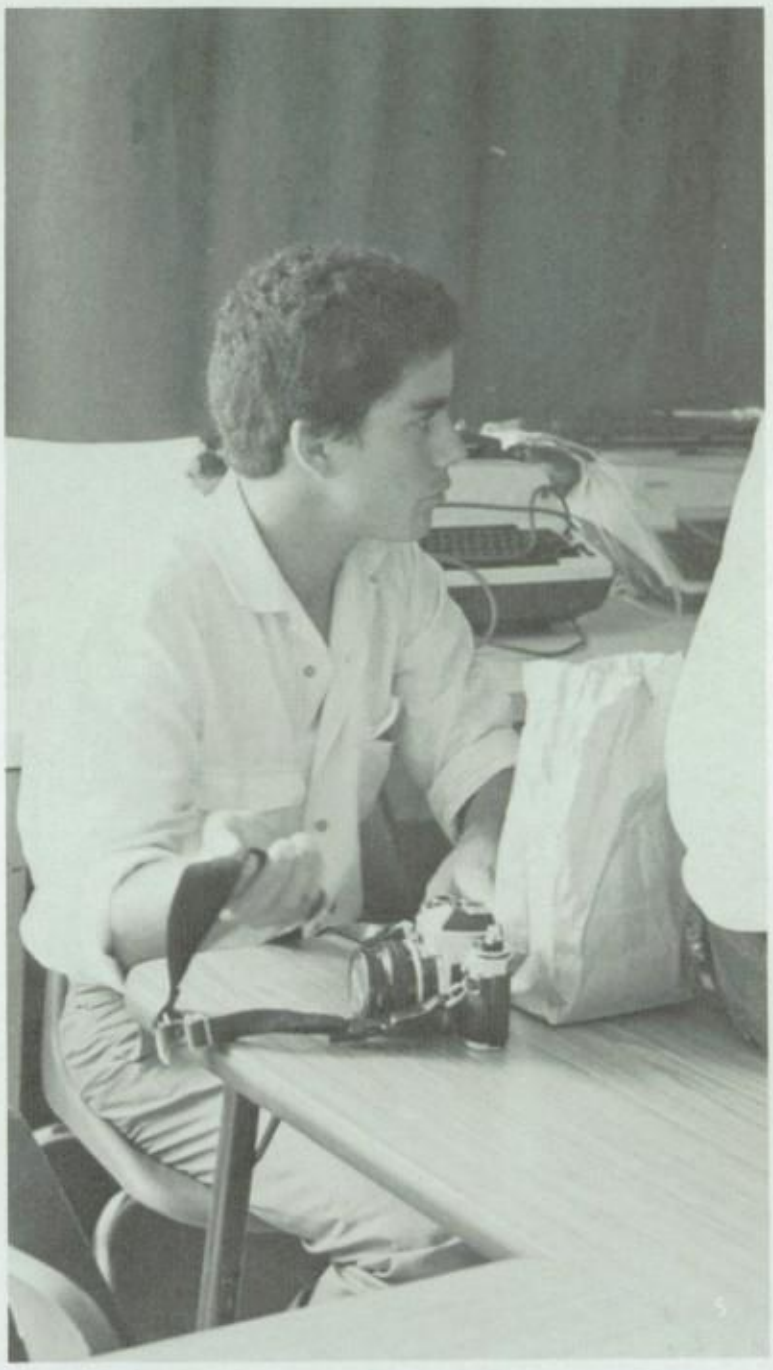
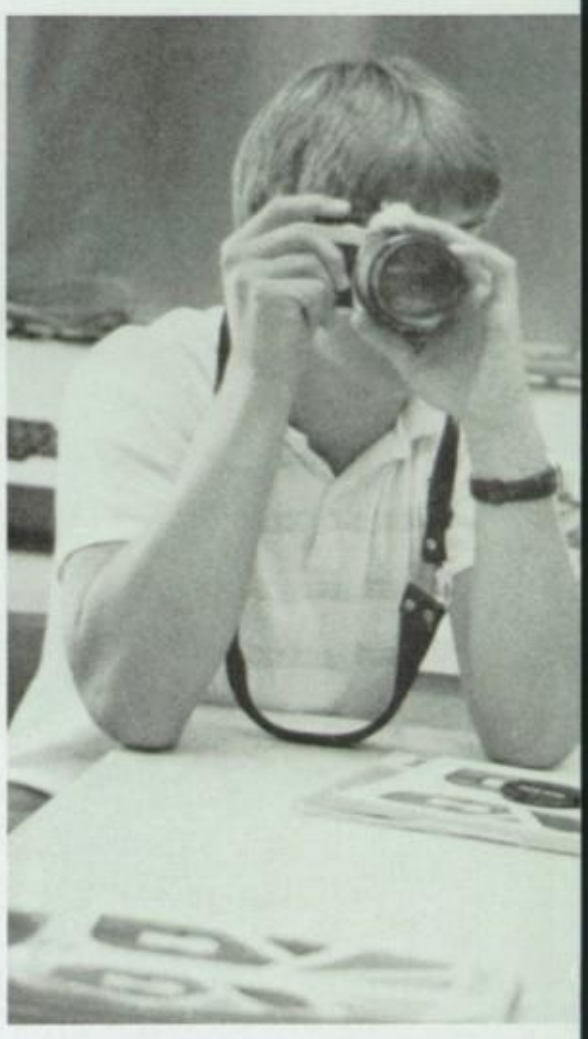
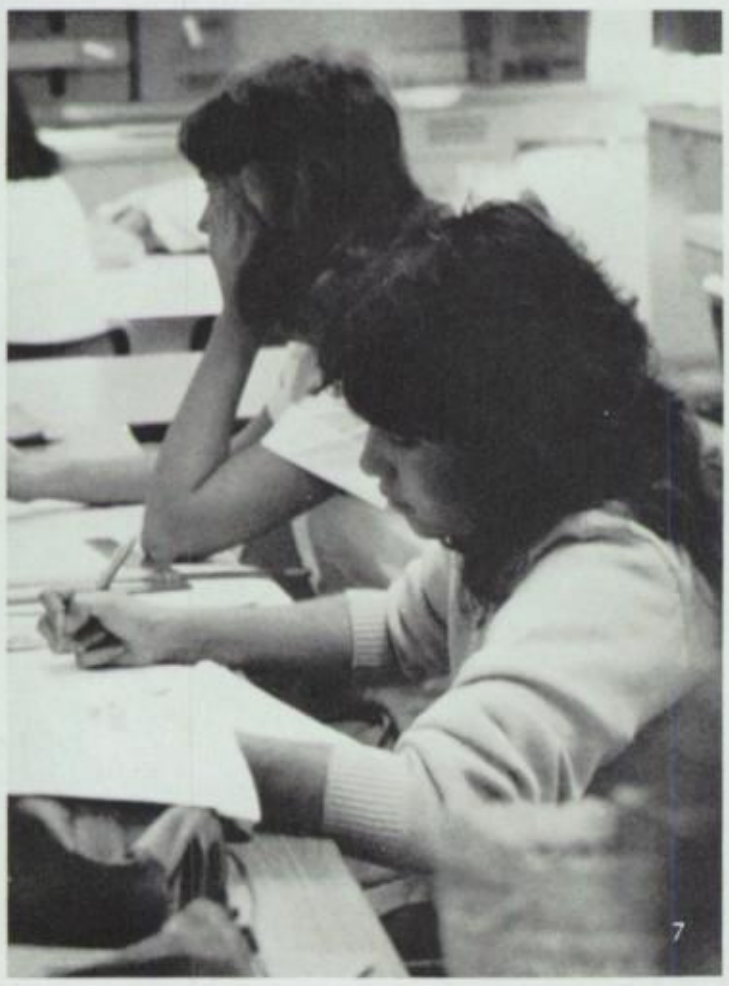
Yearbook Staff Comes Through Again







Under the instruction of advisor Nancy Patten and Chief Editor Cathy Weinzierl, the yearbook staff met their deadlines and produced the best NANTERRIAN St. Genevieve's has seen in years. The ideas brought forth by everyone allowed the entire staff to produce a great yearbook. Working cooperatively proved to be the main asset that brought it all together in the end. All who participated may now take a long well-deserved bow.

1. Mrs. Nancy Patten explains layout formats to staff members. 2. Advisor Nancy Patten and chief editor Cathy Weinzierl discuss important business. 3. The yearbook staff works hard to meet the first deadline. 4. Magda Lavadenz works on her layout. 5. Jerry Citarella, photographer, ready for anything 6. "CLICK" 7. 2) Valiant Band prepares to perform for an excited crowd at a football game.
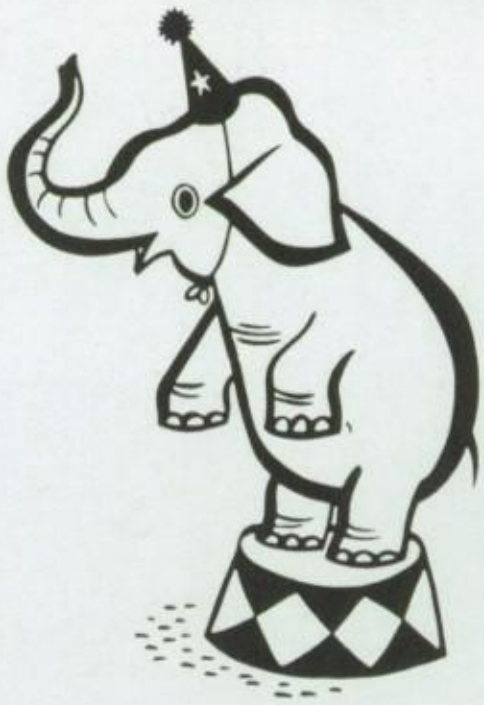
3) Drum Majorette Ann-Marie Croft gives her ideas to willing listeners.
4) "Hey does anybody know what note is next?"



The Drama Club Lives!

The Drama Club has made a tremendous comeback in the past two years. Last year's production of "God's Favorite" started the Drama Club out strong, and we had an equally successful production last fall with "A Night of Mystery" presenting "An Inspector Answers" and "Murder Well Rehearsed." John Dudik has worked as a part-time director, as well as a professional actor. We hope he will stay with St. Gen's for many years to come.

1. The Drama Club 2. "Bang!" Margaret Sanchez in another brilliant role 3. Ernie Merlan's debut 4. A star is re-born as Elise Ellsworth plays another "Dippy" character. 5. The man who makes it all work, John Dudik. 6. The cast takes a bow 7. Mike Hayek gets into character.

Entertainment Units

The Entertainment Units had a very exciting and busy year. They were involved in many fund raisers and parades. The moderator was Mrs. Kathy Main. Drill Team Captain was Deanne Lopez, Co-Captain was Felicia Morgan and Squad Leaders were Janelle Hovater and Myra Salunbides. Tall Flags Captain was Pam Fountain and Co-Captain was Claudia Garcia. Short Flags Captain was Brenda Trudel and Co-Captain was Jana Prosek. Majorette Captain and Soloist was Shauna O'Donoghue.

BLESSED

Model United Nations

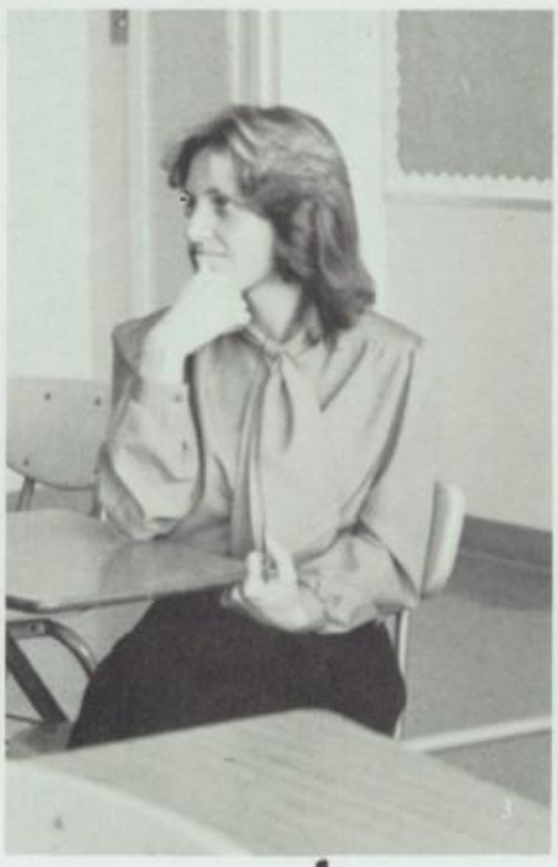
This year the Model United Nations Club consisted of Judy Tjoe, President; Sarah Connors, treasurer; Sister Eucharia, Moderator.

The Model U.N. is made up of Seniors and A.P. History students. They have many types of fundraisers such as ice cream sales and bake sales to help them raise money for their trip to Riverside.

1) Model U.N. becoming united.
2) Sr. Eucharia with president Judy Tjoe.
3) "Surprise!" says Sr. Eucharia.
4) One of the many Model U.N. activities.
5) A questionable serious discussion??

Christian Unity Club

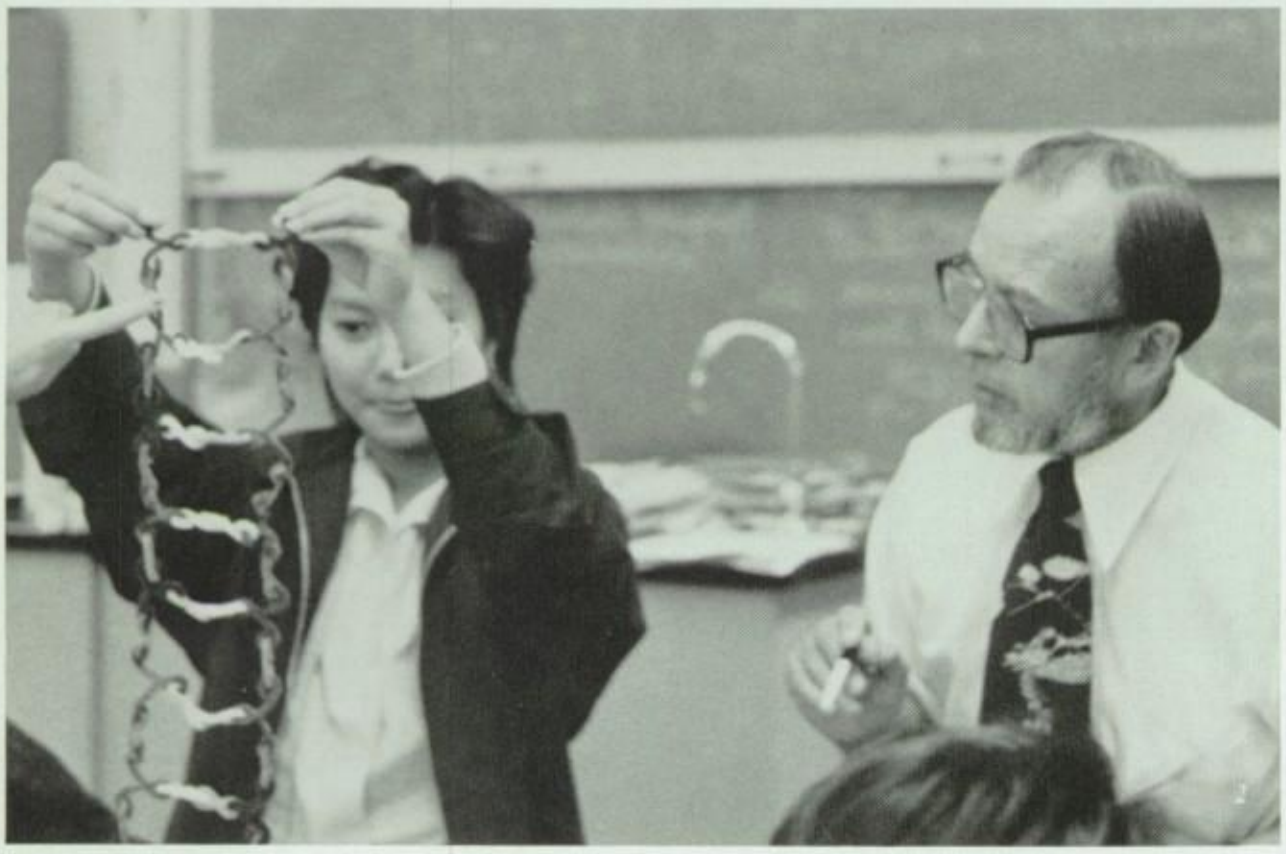
This year the Christian Unity Club was led by Miss DeCoker and Mrs. Taris. They kept tradition by providing for the needy families of the Valley with Thanksgiving food baskets and Christmas gifts. Their program of serving the community will continue throughout the year.



1. Unity Club Members
2. Students having fun
3. Miss DeCoker overlooking students at work
4. Students discussing ideas
5. While attending meeting, Mrs. Taris enjoys her lunch.
6. "Oh Darn! I broke another nail!!"

Ecology Club

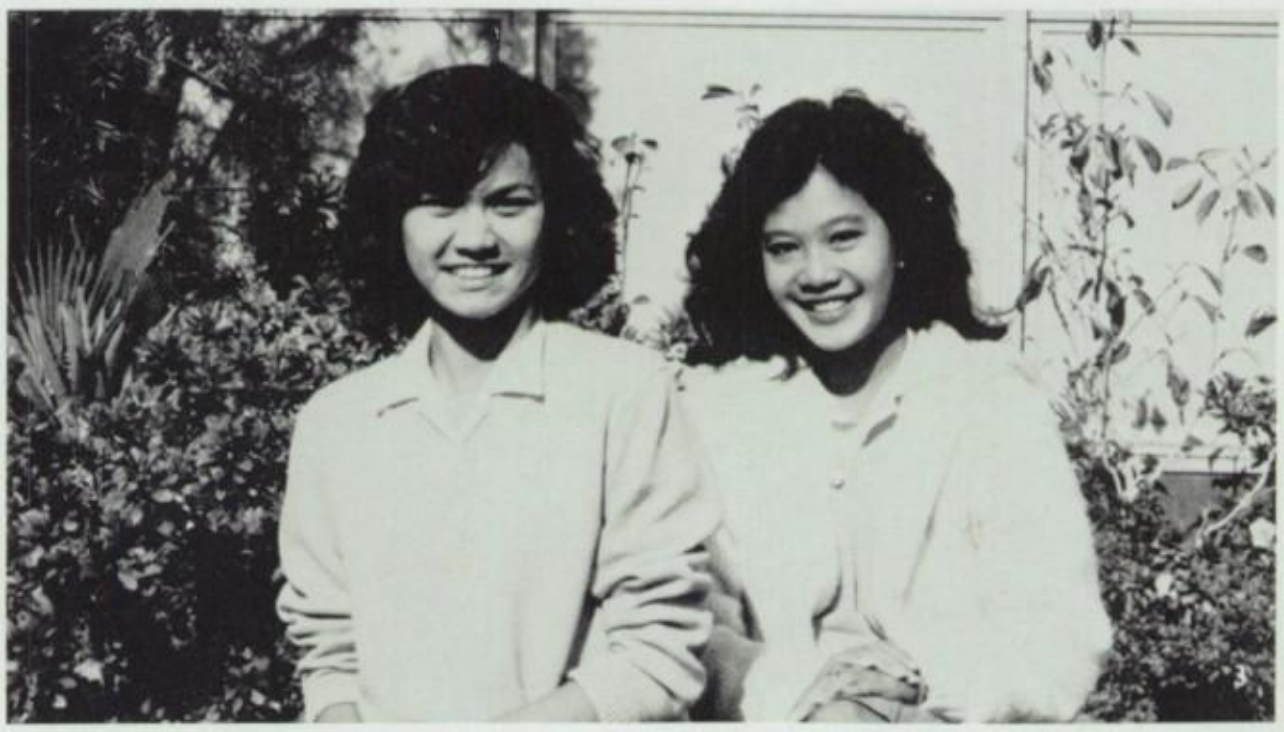
Headed by Mr. Miguel Armas, the Ecology Club had another successful year. Student members were informed of the more pressing environmental problems and how to go about solving them. Besides being an educational experience, the Ecology Club provided for a human experience by bringing members closer to nature. Club President this year was Kim Slater with Ophella Dano as Vice President.



1) Ecology Club pictured with Moderator, Mr. Armas.
2) Mr. Armas assisting an enthusiastic club member
3) A few of our ecology minded students.
4) Ecology Club members show their vast interest in nature.

Science Club

Taking over as moderator of this year's Science Club was newcomer Mr. Stahl. Through the Science Club, members had the opportunity to broaden their knowledge on the scientific wonders of the world. Club President was Judy Tjoe with Irene Macario as Vice President.



1) Science Club group photograph with Mr. Stahl, the club's moderator.

ADVERTISEMENTS

TRAINING you can grow on.

In the Air Guard, you get many opportunities to learn and sharpen technical and leadership skills. Opportunities like on-the-job training, correspondence courses, and service schools can make you more valuable to the Air Guard, to your civilian employer, and to yourself. The Air Guard can also be a great way to help pay for college.

Training. It's just one of many good reasons to keep Guarding America's skies.

THEE PLAYMATES

OUT TO HAVE SOME FUN.
LET'S GO CRAZY...
LET'S GET NUTS!!!

Raquel, Belinda, Susie, Stella,
Lupe, Esther, Liz, Melissa

We are the Playmates, we stand together in time of need, we back each other.
We're crazy, we're nuts, we like to do insane stuff.
But don't get us wrong, we're just a bunch of friends, that like to hang around together.

FOREVER FRIENDS

THINGS REMEMBERED

Editor's Page

As another year passes, another yearbook is produced. This book contains lasting memories of special times we've spent during the 1984-1985 school year.

A yearbook captures the year in pictures and words to sustain these memories. If someday some of these memories should fade or blur, I sincerely hope you will look back upon this yearbook and smile.

The 1985 NANTERRIAN is the final result of the hard work put in by a dedicated staff. Looking back at the past year I would like to thank the following:

Father Frank, the faculty, and the administration for their patience and support.
Paul Collins, our Josten's/American Yearbook representative.
Bill Christy, for his professional photographic work.
Our photographers, Jerry Citarella, Dan Cooley, Deanna Galarza, and John Murray, who gave much of their time towards enriching our yearbook.
Steve Lovric, who, although not part of the staff, beautifully designed the cover.
The entire staff who worked hard to make this yearbook special.
Sister Angela Clare, who took much of her free time to proofread all copy.
Ringling Bros. & Barnum and Bailey Combined Shows, Inc., who graciously donated transparencies for end pages and backgrounds.
Our sponsors and advertisers for their support.
And, especially, Mrs. Nancy Patten, our advisor for the NANTERRIAN 1985; we couldn't have done it without her.

Editor, NANTERRIAN, 1985

Smile, smile, smile!!!

"Angela, you rad babe!"

"Hey are you really taking our picture?"

1984-85 Yearbook Staff

The 1984-85 Nanterrian Staff: Teri Gunther, Mauricio Guardado, Griselda Gutierrez, Ginger Hallarn, Cathy Weinzierl, Stella Martinez, Deanna Galarza, Lily Galeano, Gabriel Rodriguez, Christian Gardner, Lynn Deagon, Ana Fernandez, Karen Sweo, Magda Lavadenz, Hilda Enriquez, Charmaine Golveo, Darla Johnson, Monica Shaules, John Murray, Cynthia Pachorek, Shauna O'Donoghue, Jerry Citarella, Jacqueline Fraga, Tom Collins, Angela Gutierrez, Nancy Martinez, Mrs. Patten, Mary Kalustian, and Dan Cooley. Not pictured: Dyanne Villanueva.

WE REMEMBER . . .

A split second of time; no thought to be recalled.
A split second of time; no action to be rehearsed.
A life span of eighteen years; many a memory to be looked back on- with fondness, with happiness, and with sadness;
The memory of that smile of accomplishment as the tassle is moved from the left side of the cap to the right;
The memory of that same smile expressing happiness as the photographer snaps the picture at the Senior Prom;
We remember that smile and all the different feelings it expressed when we recall Joe Ballester.
We remember the son his parents were proud of, the friend we cherished;
And, most of all, we remember a person who shared much love despite the shortness of life he was given.

Joe Ballester will live in our memories this way.

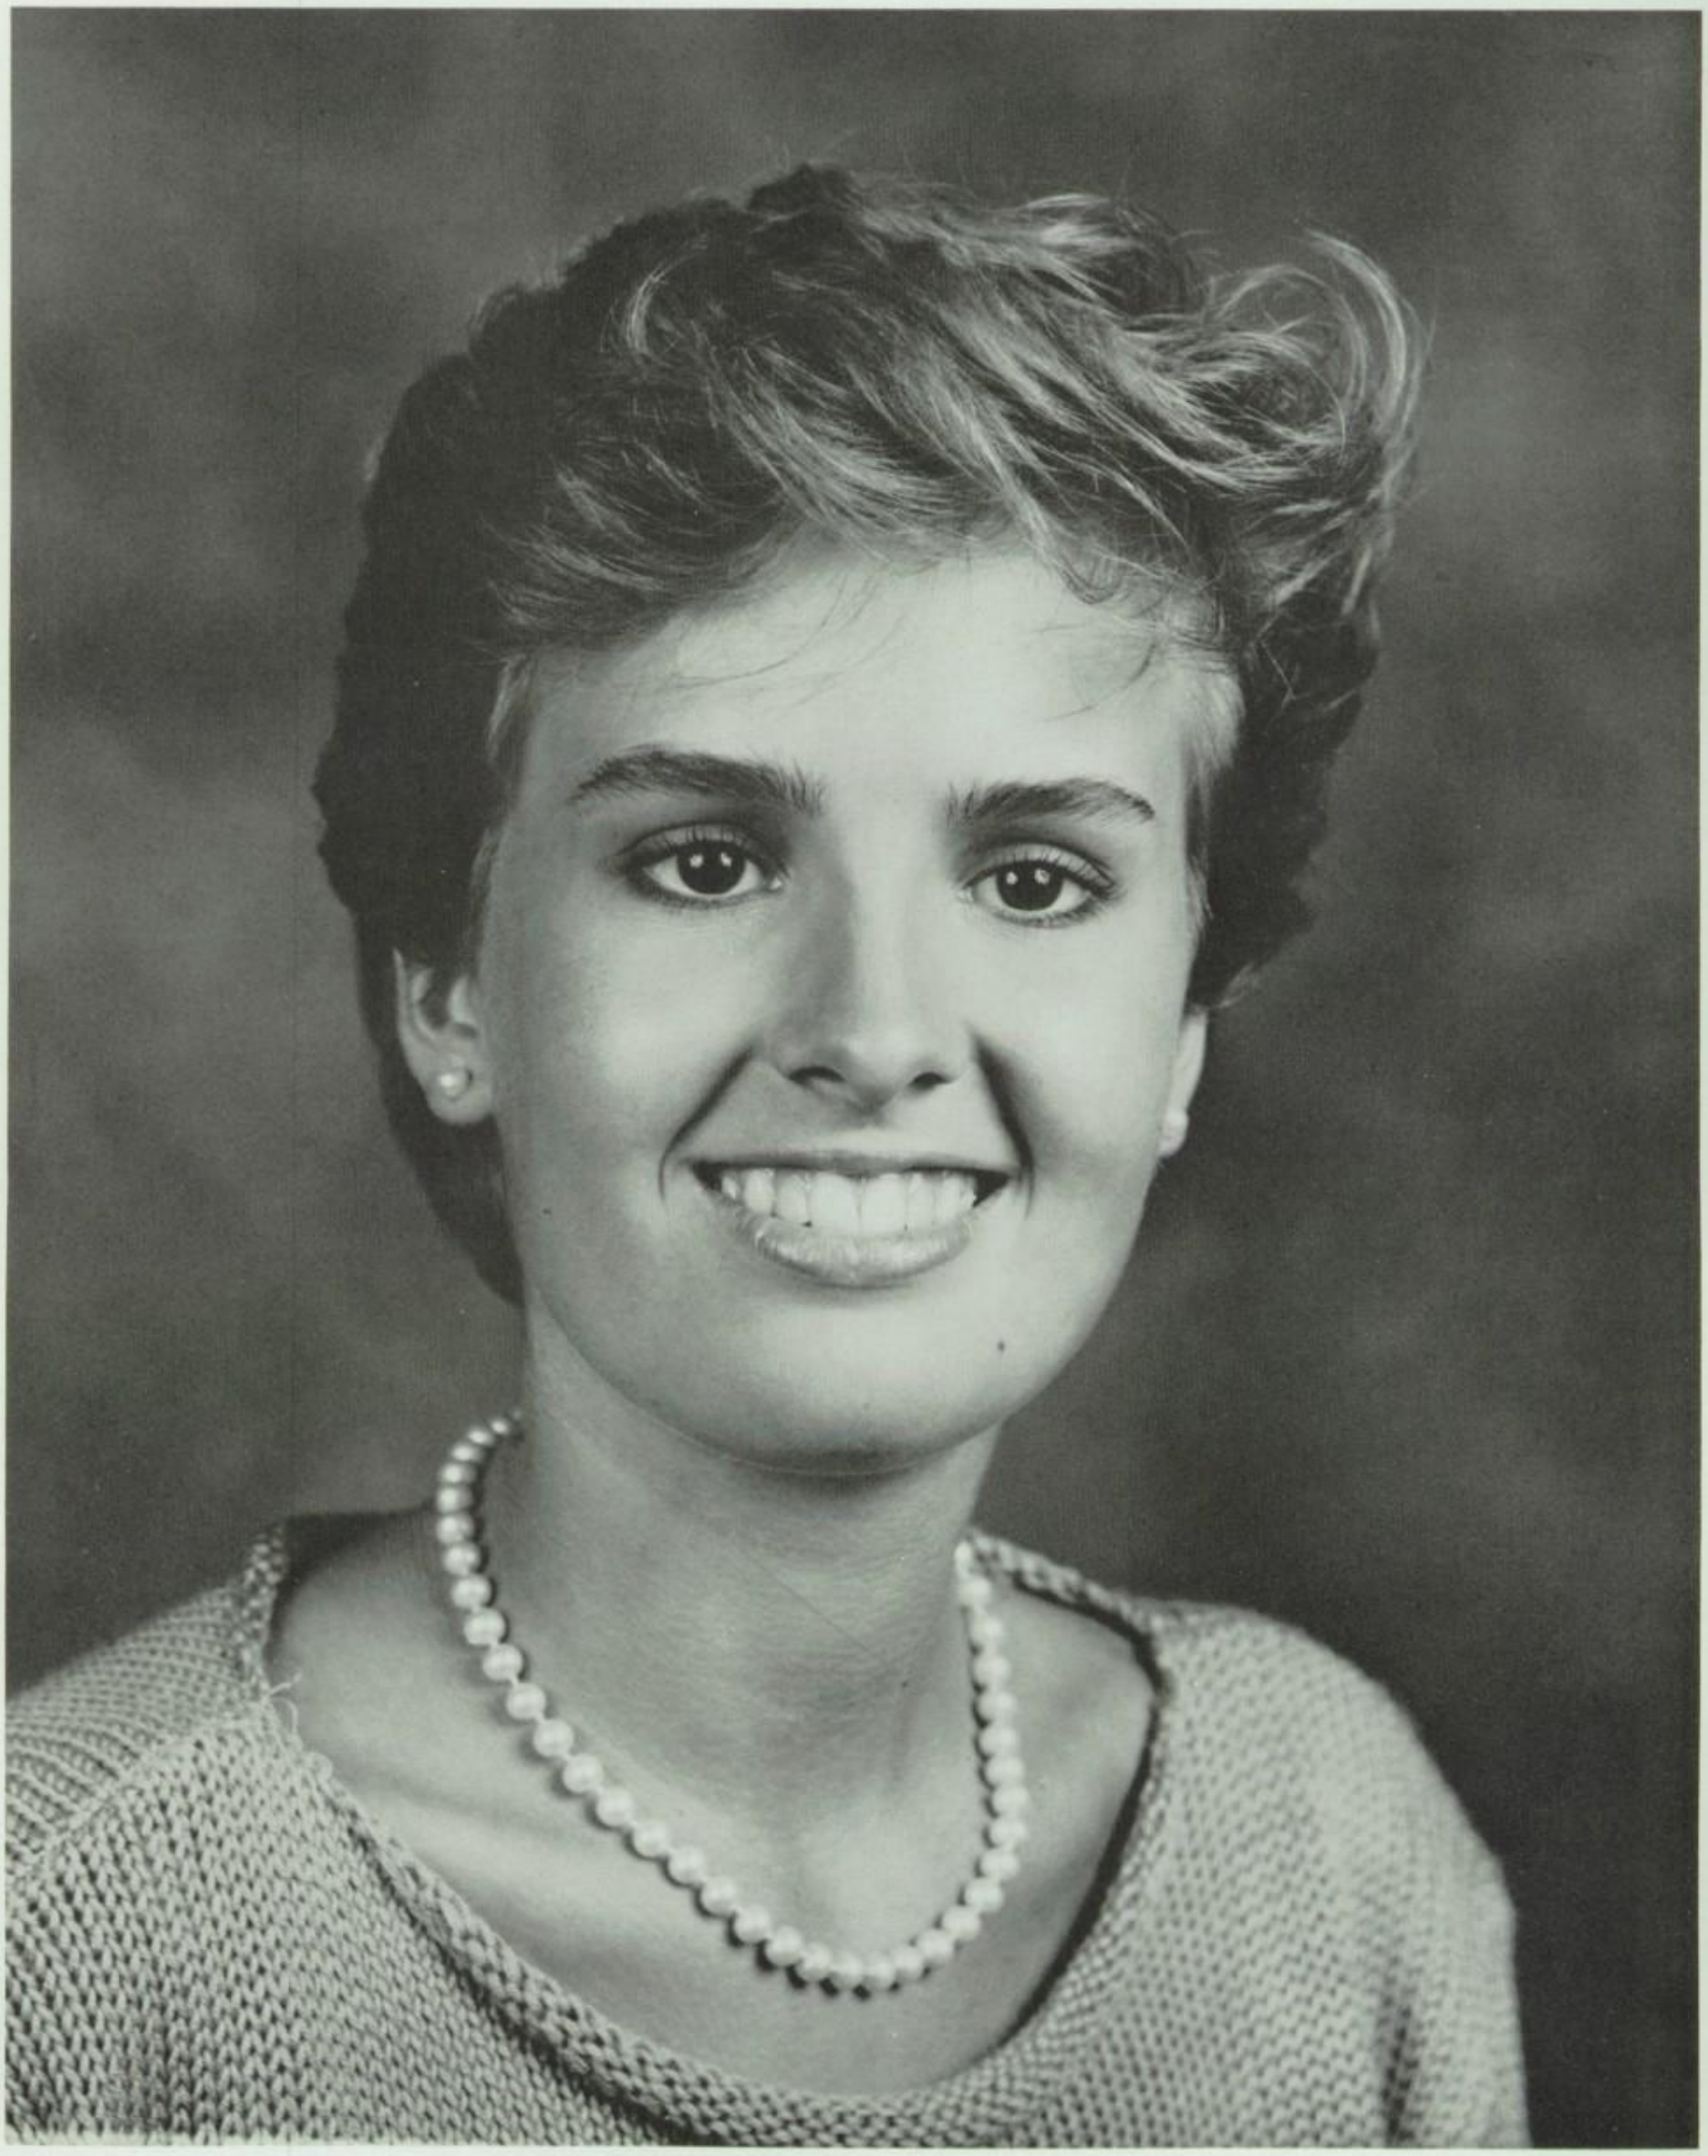
In appreciation of your generosity towards making our yearbook a success, we sincerely thank you, Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Shows, Inc. Special thanks to Rodney Huey, Director of Public Relations, for lending us circus pictures for the yearbook.



JEAN PORTER: AN INSPIRATION

You could have lived twenty, fifty, one-hundred years
But you accomplished your task, and more, in the short time you were given.
You have done His work well;
You've brought Him closer to our hearts
By the turn of your smile,
By the sound of your laughter,
By the sparkle of your eyes.
You will not soon be forgotten,
Your presence will be often with us.
You've made an impression that will live
In each one of us for a long time.
We thank you.
We thank God
For the gift of your life with us.
We love you, Jean,
And we love what you did for us
And what you are doing for us now.
God blessed you . . . ask Him to bless us.
Again . . . thanks!

CHRISTIAN IMAGES

To sketch a parent's task but briefly would Require several volumes. But to give
A picture showing parents how to live
An artist might just sketch each child he could . . .
For offspring are the mirrors parents build
Reflecting back the values they hold dear
(As God Himself set values crystal clear)
And patiently they watch and pray, faith-filled.
But scratches, smudges, fogging, often tend
To make a mirror such a constant care.
But, oh, to see a Christian smiling there . . .
The image that comes only at the end!
The Porters' great success can now be seen
Reflected in their lovely daughter, Jean!
